People are made to be loved. Things are made to be used. The trouble and confusion in our world of today is that people are being used and things are being loved!

God who counts the stars.

By Flora Larsson

The God who counts the starry skies
And knows how all the planets turn
He watches from the highest heaven
And makes our welfare His concern
So step by step in perfect love
He guides us to His home above.

In His almighty hands residing Lie all the world's that He has made
Yet to each single earth-bound mortal
He sends His Holy Spirit's aid
And if in child-like trust we rest
We see His plan is always best.

As all the stars display their brilliance
Each in it's orbit ne'er to cease
E'en to my heart the Lord dispenses
A measure of His light and peace
Ablaze with stars God's palace stands
Yet me He greets with outstretched hands.

The stars they shine in destined patterns
And from their pathways never stray
So, also I am in God's purpose
And all is well if I obey.
Take, Lord my hand and shepherd me
Along the path that leads to Thee.
